2013 UTEP Gold Nugget Alumni Award

GOLD NUGGET AWARDS GENERAL SELECTION CRITERIA

The Gold Nugget Alumni Awards are presented by the UTEP Alumni Association in partnership with each of the University colleges and schools. It is the highest honor that these academic programs can bestow on exceptional alumna/us. In comparison, the Distinguished Alumni Award is the highest honor to that can be presented by the University to a former student.

To be considered for the Gold Nugget Alumni award each alumna/us must be:

- A graduate of The University of Texas at El Paso.
- Able to accept the award in person during the annual Homecoming festivities (Homecoming week usually falls from mid-October to early November).

Each alumna/alumnus will be evaluated on a combination of their:

- Accomplishments in their business, profession, life work, or other worthy endeavors.
- Integrity, stature, and ability to inspire pride in the faculty, staff, students, and alumni.
- Notable contributions to the community, state, or nation.
- Continuing interest, loyalty, and pride in UTEP.
- Uncommon generosity of time and/or financial support to the University, College, or School.
- Ability through deed and actions to reflect and recognize the importance of his/her education.

A nominee is ineligible if he/she:

- Is a candidate for any public office
- Is a member of the award selection committee
- Has previously received the Gold Nugget Alumni Award.

Upon initial review of the nomination, the Nomination Form will be forwarded to their respective college or school's Gold Nugget Awards selection committee. The selection committee may then solicit additional materials in support of the nomination.
