Additional Information

- Please note that a submission of a nomination form does not guarantee an interview with the board’s selection committee.
- If elected, the board commitment is a three-year term (2020 - 2023).
- Participation is expected at four board meetings per year, which include an annual retreat (location may vary between a local or out-of-town venue).
- Active participation is expected on at least one board committee.

- If elected, a financial commitment of approximately $1,200 is required. This includes a Lifetime Membership to the board ($500) and other commitments to Alumni Association projects and events throughout the year. This amount can be paid in installments to the Office of Alumni Relations and must be paid within the board’s fiscal year. (Please note the Lifetime Membership is a one-time fee.)
