Additional Information

- Please note that a submission of a nomination form does not guarantee an interview with the board's selection committee.
- If elected, the board commitment is a three-year term (2021 - 2024).
- Participation is expected at four board meetings per year, which include an annual retreat (location may vary between a local or out-of-town venue).
- Active participation is expected on at least one board committee.

- Please note that all board members are required to meet a yearly financial obligation. In the first year, board members will be asked to contribute approximately $1,200, which includes a $500 Lifetime Membership to the UTEP Alumni Association (a one-time fee). The remainder will go toward Association projects and events throughout the year. The amount will vary for each subsequent year and will depend on on-going alumni events and initiatives.
